Greater Hollywood Chamber Celebrated 45th Annual Awards & Installation Ceremony with Comedian Tommy Davidson

HOLLYWOOD, FL – On February 23, 2008, the Greater Hollywood Chamber of Commerce and the local business community celebrated its 45th Annual Awards & Installation Ceremony at the Westin Diplomat Resort and Spa in Hollywood. The event featured renowned actor/comedian Tommy Davidson as the evening's host.

Davidson kept the audience entertained with his wacky impersonations and hilarious antics. At one point during the evening, he had various guests help him sing his own rendition of "My Girl" by the Temptations.

"It was hysterical to see Tommy and the Chamber's President, Barry Kay, belt out the words to "My Girl." This year's event was truly memorable and will be tough to top," says Laura Gambino, Executive Director.

Davidson is best known for films and television credits including In Living Color, Premium Blend, Strictly Business, Ace Ventura: When Nature Calls Bambozzled and the Proud Family to name a few.

The ceremony also honored incoming 2008 Chamber President Dr. Barry Kay of Hollywood Eyes and outgoing 2007 President David Lottes of Golf Hollywood!

The evening culminated with the announcement of the Chamber's prestigious Community Service Awards, which included Pinnacle Housing Group for private sector, Memorial Healthcare Systems for public sector and Sylvia Berman of Post Haste Travel for individual sector. Also honored was Donna Dickey of The Miami Herald for the 2007 Glass Ceiling Award and Beth Tobin of Starpack, Inc. for the 2007 Small Business Person of the Year Award.

The event's Presenting Sponsors were the Community Redevelopment Agency – Beach District and the City of Hollywood.
