President of Trump Productions Helps Kickoff New Hollywood Young Professionals Program

HOLLYWOOD, FL – On May 16, Andy Litinsky, President of Trump Productions and past contestant of 'The Apprentice,' helped introduce the new Greater Hollywood Chamber of Commerce's Hollywood Young Professionals (HYP) program. The kickoff event took place at the Hollywood Beach Marriott.

From college graduate to an 'Apprentice' contestant to president of Trump Productions, Litinsky shared with the audience his story of success and offered valuable advice. A short Q & A session followed.

The Chamber created HYP with the mindset of providing a platform for networking and relationship building for the younger professionals within the community.

"With this new program, the Chamber is reaching out to the younger crowd and helping them build a stronger business foundation. This kickoff event is just an example of the many successful opportunities this program will bring to its members," says Hollywood Chamber Executive Director Laura Gambino.

HYP membership is $75 for individuals and $325 for a corporate membership, which allows up to five participants.
