Hollywood Chamber Debuts its New Guide to Greater Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, FL – The Greater Hollywood Chamber of Commerce released its new Guide to Greater Hollywood earlier this year.

Produced by Passport Publications, an award winning publishing firm and Chamber member, the new magazine-style guide features up-to-date information about arts, education, government, local economy, shopping, tourism and local business services. In addition, readers will find a newly enhanced Chamber membership directory – a key resource for individuals and companies looking to access the products and services of Chamber members.

With 5,000 copies of the Guide produced, it will be distributed to Chamber members, economic development representatives and prospects, local and state government offices, high profile Hollywood resorts and tourism organizations, Enterprise Florida representatives, business schools and international trade organizations. It will also be distributed to over 1000 individuals seeking relocation information from the Chamber.
